BIO

"For the Love of Music and Vinyl!"

Celeste is a music fan, DJ and Producer. Born and raised in Amsterdam -The Netherlands - in 1974, she started performing as a dancer in winter 1991 with Dutch dance music formations as QUAZAR and WARP-9. Followed by a long period of touring with the bands and guest performances being a dancer at various clubs through out Europe. Next to her passion for dancing, House Music and performing in nightlife Celeste became a keen collector of vinyl recordings containing all her favourite styles and tunes in Dance Music from Ambient Groovy Lounge to Trance Minimal Electro Techno. Inspired by other dj's playing all sorts of different Club and Dance Music, using various techniques to scratch and mix styles like: Garage, Hip hop, R&B, Popular Top 40 and Progressive Techno. Celeste began to practise and experiment with turntables and a music mixer. Attending The School of Audio Engineering (SAE), Celeste trained to become a studio engineer. In 1992 Celeste had her very first airplay, she was invited regularly as a guest dj in various programs on Amsterdam local Pirate Radio Station Radio 100. Celeste also made her DJ debut for a clubbing audience at Amsterdam's former famous Club MAZZO†. After this gig that happened on a Thursday night DJ Celeste was soon asked to play her Celestial Night Grooves in various clubs, several private and student parties in the Netherlands. Celeste began as a warming-up DJ for DJ's Dimitri and Crazy Shaun at 'Club 36 op schaal van Richter' in Amsterdam and organises and hosts her first own night 'Playing the Cards' on Monday's at Club Amnesia in Amsterdam. Soon more nights at various venues host the impressing atmosphere Celestial Night Grooves bring to people all over the world.

Releases

In 1995 Celeste remixed together with DJ/Producer Jaimy the song 'It's not over' by Cases Inc. for the Clubsitute label (CNR). Another release came through called 'Arrogance EP' on the Soulflow label. The project Two Types with 'The Mother EP' was released also in 1995 on the Spiritual Records label by Outland Records. These rare vinyls are collectors items nowadays! Celeste is silently and secretly active as a solo producer at her own small home studio and occasionally plays her own produced tracks within the DJ set. Under development in the future there might be tracks available exclusively on this website.
